Johannes le Roux. ENTREPRENEUR COACH

Claude for entrepreneurs.

3 hours, your laptop, one job you actually hate. You leave with it running.

THE JOB YOU NAMED

Difficult to say — I'd like to set up automatic bookings and invoicing for my new coaching website.

Saturday 22 August 2026 · 10:00 – 13:00

CHIPS · 21 Roodehek Street, Gardens

What you walk out with

6 things, running, on your own machine. Not notes about how you might do it later.

1. A Project that knows your business
   Your documents, numbers and standards, in one place that outlives the chat.

2. Live data
   Your real email, drive or accounts — not a demo.

3. One real artefact
   Built in the room, off your own numbers.

4. A skill that repeats your process
   The job you do every month, captured once.

5. One job running on a schedule
   The first thing that happens without you.

6. A 14-day call and a 30-day review
   Because the room is only a third of it.

BRING

- A laptop and a charger
- One real, messy file from your business — not a tidy example
- Your logo, a couple of photos, an old deck or brochure if you have one
- Claude installed and signed in, with the workshop skill added

> ONE RULE
>
> You won't be asked to write code, open a terminal, or install anything beyond the app itself. If a step ever seems to need it, say so — it means we've taken a wrong turn, not that you've missed something.

The three hours

Roughly a quarter teaching, the rest you, doing it.

TIME		WHAT
10:00	12′	Setup and triage Logged in, everything working. Problems solved now, not at 11:30.
10:12	13′	Name the job Eight jobs on the board. That list is the spine of the session.
10:25	12′	Briefing, not prompting Rewrite your worst prompt as a proper brief. Watch what changes.
10:37	30′	Build the business brain A real Project — your documents, your numbers, your standards.
11:07	15′	Break The café is downstairs.
11:22	30′	Point it at real data Connect your email, drive or accounts. Ask about your own numbers.
11:52	43′	Delegate the job Hand over the job you named. Get back something real.
12:35	15′	Make it repeat Turn what worked into a skill. Put it on a schedule.
12:50	10′	Commit and close One thing you'll do by Friday. We book the 14-day call here.

If you fall behind, get to 11:52. That's the block that makes the day worth it. Everything before it is setup and everything after it is making it repeat — but the middle is where you hand over a real job and get something back.

Briefing, not prompting

The single biggest difference between people who find this underwhelming and people who don't. A prompt asks for a thing. A brief says what you're trying to achieve and hands over what's needed to do it.

THE FIVE PARTS

1. The job. What you actually want done, and why it matters.
2. The context. Your business, your numbers, your constraints.
3. The material. The real file. Not a description of the file.
4. What good looks like. How you'd know it was done properly.
5. The format. A spreadsheet, a page, a document, an email.

WRITE YOUR WORST PROMPT HERE — THE ONE THAT GAVE YOU A DISAPPOINTING ANSWER.

NOW WRITE IT AS A BRIEF.

Your site, live — taking bookings

You leave with a coaching site on the internet that takes a booking. The booking lands in your inbox, and the next morning the invoice is already drafted on your template with the right client, the right session and the right amount. You check it and send it.

WHAT IT NEEDS FROM YOU

- The sessions you sell, what each one costs, and how long they run
- Who they are for, in a sentence you would say out loud
- An invoice you've sent recently — the real one, so we match your format
- Your banking details as they appear on invoices
- Your logo and a photo of you. People book a person, not a service

WHAT REPEATS AFTERWARDS

A skill that turns any booking into a finished invoice, and a morning check for yesterday's bookings and anything unpaid.

> WATCH FOR
>
> Two things we are not doing on the day: card payments on the site, and your own domain. Both are sign-ups and money rather than builds, and both will eat the whole afternoon if we let them. You leave with a live web address and invoices going out by EFT — which is how most coaches get paid anyway.

NOTES — ASSUMPTIONS, NUMBERS, THINGS TO FIX LATER

Before you leave

Most training evaporates inside a fortnight. This is the page that decides whether yours does.

THE ONE THING I'LL DO BY FRIDAY

WHAT I BUILT TODAY, AND WHERE IT LIVES

WHAT I'D BUILD NEXT, IF THIS WORKS

WHAT HAPPENS NOW

- Day 1 — your asset pack: Project template, the skill you built, my prompt library
- Day 14 — a 60-minute group call. One win and one blocker each. This is the call that decides whether it sticks
- Day 30 — a written review: what's working, what isn't, what's next

STUCK BETWEEN NOW AND THEN

Tell Claude what happened — it can fix most of it. If it can't, mail me. I'd rather hear about it on the Tuesday than at the 14-day call.
